About the role

We're looking for a well-organised, enthusiastic Education Administrator to join the Hallé's Connect team to support our award-winning education and community outreach programme. You'll play a key role in supporting our work with schools and helping to bring music to people of all ages and backgrounds.

You'll ensure the smooth running of day-to-day activities, particularly projects in schools across Greater Manchester and beyond.

What you'll do

- Support and coordinate a wide range of education projects, including:
 - School concerts
 - In-school programmes (e.g. Meet-a-Musician, Creative Workshops)
 - Early Years projects (e.g. Hallé Magic, Storytime)
 - Professional experience schemes
- Liaise with The Bridgewater Hall and the Hallé Concerts team about concert logistics
- Book musicians, choral leaders, and resources for project delivery
- Create and manage schedules in coordination with partner organisations
- Oversee day-to-day project budgets and process payments and invoices
- Maintain and update our Schools' Database and support email communications
- Prepare and distribute educational materials and project packs
- Assist with community outreach projects and events (e.g. Hallé Musical Stars and Relaxed Moments)
- Attend and support events and help gather feedback and evaluation data
- Help maintain safeguarding records (DBS/chaperones)
- Assist with photography and filming where appropriate
- Respond to enquiries and provide general team support

Person specification – what we're looking for

This role will suit you if you have:

- Outstanding proven organisational skills and administrative capability
- Exceptional communication skills, both written and verbal
- IT-literacy (word processing, internet, spreadsheets and database management)
- Ability to work quickly and efficiently with a keen eye for detail
- Calm and capable personality
- Energetic, enthusiastic and hardworking
- Self-starting, with an organised and positive approach
- Ability to work both autonomously and as part of a team
- A genuine interest in orchestral and choral music
- Knowledge of orchestral and choral music to degree level or equivalent is desirable but not essential to the role
- Knowledge or experience of music education and orchestral outreach programmes an advantage but not a requirement

We are committed to building an inclusive workplace where everyone feels welcome and able to thrive. We encourage applications from people of all backgrounds and experiences, and we are happy to discuss adjustments to support you through the recruitment process.

The particulars

Reports to: Education and Outreach Manager

Location: Manchester (The Bridgewater Hall, Hallé St Peter's) and other venues

Contract: Part-time (60%), permanent. Working days will be agreed with your line manager.

Salary: £15,211.95 per annum (3 days/week)

Holidays: 25 days annual leave plus public holidays, increasing by an additional day for each 3 years of service up to a maximum of an additional 10 days. The pro-rata holiday allowance for this post will be 60% FTE.

If you cannot provide one of these passports, we will need to see one or more additional documents (dependent on your circumstances).

We are unable to provide sponsorship for this post.

About the Hallé

Kahchun Wong, Principal Conductor & Artistic Advisor

Sir Mark Elder, Conductor Emeritus

Thomas Adès, Principal Guest Conductor

Sir James MacMillan, Featured Composer

Leila Josefowicz and Jonny Greenwood, Featured Artists

In 1858, Sir Charles Hallé held a strong belief: music should be for everyone.

This simple idea turned into a wonderful gift when Hallé founded his groundbreaking orchestra right here in Manchester, bringing world-class music to people's doorsteps.

A lot has changed since then, but we're still committed to sharing Hallé's incredible gift with our great city and beyond. Every year, we change lives, connect communities and enrich the world around us. Together, through the power of music, we reach over 90,000 people in our community.

Our people

Many music legends have shaped us over the years: Hans Richter, Hamilton Harty, John Barbirolli ... to name a few. The baton passed to Kahchun Wong to start a new chapter in our history as Principal Conductor & Artistic Advisor. Meanwhile, after almost 25 years as Music Director, Sir Mark Elder became our Conductor Emeritus at the end of the 2024/25 season.

Our players

At the heart of the Hallé, our players create the world-famous sound that moves audiences every day. These extraordinary artists come from across the globe, combining their talents as soloists, chamber musicians, educators and more. At their helm are our dynamic Leaders; the amazingly talented Roberto Ruisi and Emily Davis.

Our shared passion

Today, we're an orchestra of over 80 musicians, 500 singers across five choirs and a core team of more than 50 passionate music lovers. Together, we're dedicated to honouring Hallé's legacy and to leaving a lasting impact, long after the music stops. From the concert hall to the classroom, we continue to find new, relevant and exciting ways to share Hallé's gift of music with the world. And bring the joy, passion and beauty of music to people's lives everywhere.

How we do this

Our seasons have plenty to tempt listeners. From breathtaking classics and non-classical music to family performances and relaxed concerts, not to mention bold new works from some of the finest musical talent here and across the world. Every year, our community grows, shaped and connected by the joy, passion and beauty of music.

Where we do this

In Manchester, a city of incredible musical talent and diversity. We've been proud to call it home for almost 170 years. Originally starting out in Manchester's Free Trade Hall, we're now resident in the specially-built Bridgewater Hall – one of the world's greatest concert venues. Every year, we perform to audiences of more than 100,000 people.

We also have homes in Ancoats. There is Hallé St Peter's, where we rehearse, record and perform, and Hallé at St Michael's, a space for our other activities and community events.

Our world

As well as bringing world-class talent to Manchester, we also bring Manchester's talent to the world. We hold residencies in major UK cities and often perform at prestigious international festivals like the BBC Proms and the Edinburgh Festival. Not to mention touring overseas. We launched our own record label and regularly broadcast concerts online too. We've been busy winning awards while we're at it – including a 2022 South Bank Sky Arts Award.

Equity, Diversity, Inclusion and Belonging

The Hallé Concerts Society is embedded in its city and aims to reflect the great diversity of Greater Manchester in all areas of its work: musicians, staff, Board participants and audiences.

Our ambition is to ensure that all employees and job applicants are given equal opportunity and that our organisation is representative of all sections of society. Each employee will be respected and valued and able to give their best as a result. We're committed to providing equality and fairness to all in our employment and not provide less favourable facilities or treatment on the grounds of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, ethnic origin, colour, nationality, national origin, religion or belief, or sex and sexual orientation. We are opposed to all forms of unlawful and unfair discrimination. All employees, no matter whether they are part-time, full-time, or temporary, will be treated fairly and with respect.

But simply having a diverse workforce is not enough. We want to build an inclusive environment, where everyone can develop to their full potential. We celebrate our differences and recognise the importance of teams reflecting the activities and communities they serve.

We support flexible working arrangements wherever possible and welcome conversations about how we can accommodate individual needs.
